

How to Leave a Company Review on Indeed

Want to write a review of Goodwin Living? Indeed.com makes it simple and quick. Follow these five easy steps to voice your feedback as a GL team member.

Your Reviews are Protected

Company reviews are anonymous and NEVER attached to any of your future job applications. The reviews ONLY include star ratings, the review text that you write, your job title, where you worked and the review date. Please feel free share your honest experience of GL and invite your coworkers to do the same!

Step 1:

Find our company page on Indeed https://www.indeed.com/cmp/Goodwin-Living-1/reviews. This is where we post our job applications and where you can view the feedback that others have written about Goodwin Living.

Step 2:

Select the "write a review" button near the top of the page.

Step 3:

Begin your review by responding to the questions prompted by Indeed. You will be asked to rate your experience from a scale of 1 to 5, with 5 being the best. Some questions use star ratings for their scale. You may skip the questions that are not labeled as required questions (see below). Required questions are marked with a red asterisk.

steps Over 300 million Unique Visitors' come to Indeed each month. Your voice can help guide them. You'll need to log in or create a new Indeed account. All questions are optional. Please skip any that don't apply. Step 4:

Strongly disagree

After you have entered your company ratings, you will find four labeled textboxes for you to write comments about your GHI experience. The "review summary" textbox is meant to express all your general feedback in one short sentence. The "your review" textbox is where you will write a full review with a minimum of 150 characters.

Strongly agree

The remaining "pros" and "cons" boxes are optional, but they are provided for you to identify specific positives or negatives in your experience

Step 5:

Once you complete every required question, select "Finish" to submit your review!
